GEORGIA FRONTIERE

Chairman/Owner

The title of the St. Louis Rams' highlight film is "Spirit of St. Louis," which is an apt description of Georgia Frontiere. It was Georgia's spirit and determination that played a major role in the return of professional football to her hometown with the arrival of the Rams in 1995.

The Rams' relocation to St. Louis rekindled the city's football spirit and rejuvenated the Rams, who immediately became part of the community fabric, on the field in the new Trans World Dome and off the field in various charitable and promotional endeavors that underscored the organization's commitment throughout the bi-state area.

"The Rams' fans and the citizens of St. Louis gave us an overwhelming reception," says Georgia. "The great tradition of the Rams has found a new home in this dynamic area. We have one of the finest playing facilities in the NFL with the Trans World Dome, and we recently opened our offices in a state-of-the-art, permanent facility west of the Lambert Field Airport."

Georgia, who grew up in the city's Central West End, is in her 18th season as head of the Rams' organization. During the Frontiere era the Rams have been to a Super Bowl (game XIV), reached the NFL playoffs in eight seasons, and advanced to the NFC championship game three times, among numerous other accomplishments. Georgia is committed to providing the best in pro football entertainment and to position her franchise in the St. Louis community, with an emphasis on education, the arts, youth groups, and other charitable entities. She is a member of the board of the St. Louis Symphony and the St. Louis Zoo and a member of the Saint Louis University board of trustees. Georgia also is a member of the board of the Laumeier Sculpture Park in St. Louis County.

Charity and social consciousness always have been a high priority for Georgia Frontiere. She recently gifted a scholarship in her name to a deserving student at Hamilton Elementary, the school Georgia attended as a child in St. Louis. She also annually presents a $5,000 college scholarship to a student who draws the winning illustration for the cover of the Rams' media guide. Aside from her involvement in the St. Louis community, Georgia also holds a Doctor of Philanthrophy from Pepperdine University in Malibu, California, and is on the Board of Directors of the American Art Museum in Britain.

Georgia has been a recipient of the Ellis Island Medal of Honor, which cited her for "community involvement and for having greatly contributed to our national identity while preserving the distinct values of her ancestors." Georgia shared the award with, among others, Army General Norman Schwartzkopf.

The needs of children are of particular interest to Georgia, who has served on the board of directors of the Los Angeles Boys' and Girls' Club as well as being a benefactor of the St. Jude Children's Research Center in Memphis. Georgia also is a board member of the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of America and a National Board member of the American Foundation for AIDS Research. She occupies a similar position with the St. John's Ambulance Brigade of Great Britain.

In 1991 Georgia's dedication to the advancement of youth was reflected in a substantial donation to the Fulfillment Fund, an organization that sponsors more than 2,000 high school students who are selected for having college potential.

Recognized internationally as a Patron of the Arts, Georgia is on the Board of the Los Angeles Music Center Opera, the Golden Horseshoe of the New York Metropolitan Opera, and the Boards of New York's Collegiate Chorale and the William Hall Chorale. She also is a member of the NFL Alumni Board of Governors and has a goal of creating a retirement home for ex-football players, coaches, and staff personnel.

Georgia is the mother of two children, son Dale Rosenbloom (married to the former Kathleen Melville) and Lucia Rodriguez (married to Lupe Rodriguez). She has five grandchildren.

STAN KROENKE

Vice Chairman/Owner

The St. Louis Rams' inaugural 1995 season marked the completion of a two-year effort by Stan Kroenke to return professional football to St. Louis. Kroenke's participation as an owner of the Rams served as a catalyst for the community-wide effort. With the relocation completed, Stan, as Vice Chairman of the team, set out with Georgia Frontiere and the team's senior management to develop a program for a winning team.

Although active in all facets of the team, Stan concentrated his efforts this past year on the development of the league's premier team headquarters and training facility. In one year's time, Stan oversaw the facility's development. Completed in June, 1996, the facility, sitting on twenty acres in St. Louis County, includes 90,000 square feet of administrative and football training space, three outdoor natural grass fields and an 80-yard indoor artificial surface field.

With the addition of some key free agents and a successful draft, Stan feels that 1996 will be an exciting year for the Rams : "I am confident of the team's direction. Our fans should have a lot of fun this season."

Stan is chairman and owner of the The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with offices throughout the United States and headquarters in Columbia, Missouri. During the past twenty years, Kroenke has built a reputation as one of the nation's top developers of shopping centers and apartment buildings.

Stan is a member of the Board of Directors of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. Kroenke has other business interests that include director positions with Community Investment Partnership I and II of St. Louis, Missouri, and the Boone County National Bank in Columbia. Stan serves as a trustee of the College of the Ozarks and on the Strategic Development board of the University of Missouri School of Business. Kroenke also is a trustee of the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame and is a member of the board of the Central Bancompany in Jefferson City.

Stan has undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri and is an active supporter of Mizzou athletic programs, including the Dan Devine Club, named for the former Tigers football coach.

E. Stanley Kroenke was born in Cole Camp, Missouri, and grew up in Mora, Missouri. Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Josh. They reside in Columbia, Missouri.

EXECUTIVES

JOHN SHAW
President
17th Season with Rams

John Shaw's importance to the Rams' organization and his influence in the National Football League has been dramatically underscored in the decade of the nineties, a period in which Shaw has been predominant in events critical to the Rams and the NFL.

Shaw worked continuously with representatives from St. Louis and the NFL and was a central figure in the overwhelmingly successful return of professional football to the Missouri city in 1995. John also maintained his role as an active participant in shaping the direction of the NFL as a member of the NFL Management Council Executive Committee. Shaw was a principal contributor in the enactment of a Collective Bargaining Agreement with the NFL Players' Association that brought labor peace to the NFL in 1993. Shaw, who joined the Rams in 1980, also continued to oversee all aspects of the Rams' operation as Chairman and Owner Georgia Frontiere's primary advisor on financial, business, and legal matters.

Shaw is a native of New York who moved to San Diego as a youngster, attended high school there, and graduated from the University of San Diego with a bachelor's degree in accounting. John continued his education at New York University School of Law, from which he received a Juris Doctor Degree, and practiced law in California prior to joining the accounting firm of Arthur Andersen & Co.

Shaw is a member of the board of the Greater St. Louis United Way. He also is a member of the Council of Trustees of LEARN, an educational program. John has a daughter, Alexandra.

JAY A. ZYGMUNT

Executive Vice President

15th Season with Rams

Jay Zygmunt works closely with Rams President Shaw in overseeing all aspects of Rams operations. Jay also serves as the club's principal negotiator of player contracts and manages the club's salary cap that was established by the National Football League's 1993 Collective Bargaining Agreement. Zygmunt also is the Rams' liaison to both the NFL Management Council and the NFL Players' Association in the area of player relations and other collective bargaining matters.

Zygmunt, who joined the Rams in 1982 as General Counsel, was named Vice President in 1988, Senior Vice President in 1991, and Executive Vice President in 1996.

A native of Chicago, Zygmunt graduated from the University of Notre Dame in 1973 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and is a member of the Sorin Society. Jay then earned his Juris Doctor degree from Northwestern University School of Law, where he is a member of the Whigmore Society.

Zygmunt is both a Certified Public Accountant and a member of the Illinois bar. Prior to joining the Rams he was associated with Arthur Anderson & Company and had practiced law.

Zygmunt is a member of the American Bar Association's Forum Committee on the Entertainment and Sports Industries and the Sports Lawyers Association.

BOB WALLACE

Senior Vice President/ Administration, General Counsel

16th NFL Season
Second with Rams

The year of 1995 represented a homecoming for Bob Wallace, who concluded a whirlwind first six months with the Philadelphia Eagles then returned to St. Louis to join the Rams.

Wallace, who lettered in football as a running back at Yale University, has a long association with the NFL and with professional football in St. Louis. He was a training camp assistant with the St. Louis Cardinals as a teenager in 1971 and from 1981-91 served as the Counsel to and chief contract negotiator for the Cardinals while representing the St. Louis law firm of Guilfoil, Petzall and Shoemake.

Wallace was Assistant to the President and General Counsel of the Eagles. In that capacity, he played a vital role in their playoff season of 1995, handling negotiations and signing 17 free agents, including Rickey Watters from the San Francisco 49ers and Kevin Turner from the New England Patriots.

A native of New York City who attended Woodmere Academy in Long Island as a high school student, Wallace served on former NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle's staff as a legal intern and has taught classes on sports law as a professor at the St. Louis University School of Law.

Wallace earned his law degree from Georgetown University in Washington, D.C., after being graduated from Yale. As an undergraduate Wallace was the coordinator for Black Athletes at Yale. Bob currently serves on a number of boards, including the Urban League of Greater St. Louis; Payback, Inc.; Operation Excel, Inc.; the Repertory Theater of St. Louis; St. Louis Sports Lawyers' Association, and the St. Louis Sports Commission. Wallace is a member of the Sports and Entertainment Division of the American Bar Association. He also has served on the Executive Committee for the Young Lawyers division of the Metropolitan Bar Association of St. Louis and received a certificate of recognition for law and education projects from the St. Louis Public schools.

Bob and his wife Julie, a native of Murphysboro, Illinois, have two sons, Grant, 3, and Eric, 2, and live in St. Louis.

STEVE ORTMAYER
Vice President/Football Operations
22nd NFL Season
Second with Rams

Ortmayer has one of the most diverse backgrounds in professional football. This is Steve's 22nd consecutive year in the NFL in a career punctuated by coaching, scouting, drafting, and administrative positions.

Ortmayer was named vice president of football operations by the Rams Jan. 13, 1995. He is responsible for the Rams' football operations, including player acquisition, and oversees the team's college and pro personnel departments and the collegiate draft.

A native of Painesville, Ohio, Steve grew up in Nashville, Tennessee, and Dallas, Texas. He was an Eagle Scout as a youngster and graduated from Highland Park High in Dallas before attending Vanderbilt University in Nashville and LaVerne College in LaVerne, California. Steve was graduated from LaVerne in 1967 with a degree in English and Physical Education.

Ortmayer began an eight-year collegiate coaching career in 1968 as a graduate assistant at Colorado and coached the offensive or defensive line for the Buffaloes from 1969-73. After coaching the offensive line at Georgia Tech in 1974, Steve came to the NFL in 1975 as special teams coach for the Kansas City Chiefs. He became director of football operations for the Oakland Raiders in 1978. Steve also coached special teams for the Raiders from 1979-86, a period in which the Raiders won Super Bowl XV after the 1980 season and Super Bowl XVIII after the 1983 season. He was director of football operations for the San Diego Chargers from 1987-89. Ortmayer held a similar post with the Raiders from 1990-94 and was their special teams coach.Steve and his wife Merylee live in St. Louis with their sons Beau and Cody.

MARSHALL KLEIN
Vice President- Media and Community Relations
14th Season with Rams

Marshall Klein's duties encompass several areas in the Rams' organization. He serves as the liaison between chairman and owner Georgia Frontiere and various Rams departments and is closely involved with the numerous charities supported by and in which the Rams' owner participates.

Klein oversees the marketing, public relations and entertainment departments and represents the team at numerous charitable and civic events. The native of Pittsburgh, who moved to Los Angeles as a youngster, was employed 21 years by the Los Angeles Times, the last 15 as Sports Editor of the Orange County Edition, before joining the Rams in May, 1983.

Klein has been a lecturer at several Southern California universities, among them Cal State-Fullerton, Cal State-Long Beach and Cal State-Dominguez Hills.

Klein and his wife Katie have four children, Philip, Michael, Benjamin and Molly.

STUDENT WINS MEDIA GUIDE ART CONTEST

The cover illustration for the Rams' 1996 media guide was created by Jeffrey Cranford, 16, a student at O'Fallon Township High School in O'Fallon, Illinois.

Jeffrey's illustration was selected as the winner of the St. Louis Rams and St. Louis Post-Dispatch sponsored national art competition that was open to students 18 years of age and under. Jeffrey wins a $5,000 scholarship from owner Georgia Frontiere to continue his education.

RICH BROOKS

Head Coach

6th NFL Season

Fourth with Rams

Few NFL first-year coaches have experienced the wide-ranging baptism of the Rams' Rich Brooks in 1995. From Day 1, Brooks and the Rams' organization confronted one challenge after another.

Chairman and owner Georgia Frontiere appointed Brooks to the position Feb. 10, 1995, after Brooks concluded an 18-year career as head coach at the University of Oregon, where he tenaciously built the Ducks' program into one of national recognition, culminating with a 9-3 record, a Pacific 10 Conference championship in 1994, and a New Year's Day Rose Bowl appearance against Penn State.

Brooks' introductory news conference with the St. Louis media was in a hotel room in Indianapolis. The new coach had hit the ground running, going directly from Eugene, Oregon, to the NFL Scouting Combine in Indianapolis, where he began assembling his coaching staff. The Rams had announced they were moving to St. Louis but held mini-camps and the NFL draft at their Southern California base in Anaheim. Because of the move and inherent logistics, the Rams practiced at seven different facilities in 1995, played their first five games, preseason and regular season, on the road, and had two home stadiums, Busch and the new Trans World Dome. The Rams' final log of 7-9 represented an improvement of 3 victories over 1994 and tied the Rams for first in the NFC for most improved record.

The 1995 NFL draft may have spoken volumes about Brooks and his tenure at Oregon. The Ducks, who were tied with national champion Penn State in the Rose Bowl with three minutes remaining in the third quarter, had three players selected in the draft, all on the second day, all in the sixth round or later. Three Penn State players were among the first nine selected in the draft.

Modest, understated, Brooks nonetheless is known as a fiery competitor who earned the respect of his peers as a collegiate player and coach. Brooks was a quarterback and defensive back under head coach Tommy Prothro at Oregon State. He intercepted five passes as a senior in 1962. Upon graduation in 1963, Brooks was assistant freshmen coach for the Beavers while earning his master's degree in education.

Brooks taught and coached one year at Norte Del Rio High in Sacramento, California, then rejoined the Oregon State staff as defensive line coach from 1965-69. He was linebackers coach at UCLA in 1970, special teams coach for the Rams in 1971-72, was defensive coordinator at Oregon State in 1973, coached defensive backs and special teams for the San Francisco 49ers from 1974-75, and returned to UCLA as linebackers coach in 1976.

Brooks was appointed head coach at football-impoverished Oregon in 1977 and embarked on a difficult task.

The Ducks were 24-49-4 in Brooks' first seven seasons and 67-60 in his last 11. The Ducks made their first bowl appearance in 26 seasons in 1989 and became back-to-back bowl participants for the first time in 1990. Brooks was the first Oregon coach to have a third bowl team in 1992.

Oregon was ranked ninth in the country in 1994, their highest position in college football polls in 30 years.

Brooks was Pacific 10 coach of the year in 1979 and repeated the honor in 1994. Brooks also received the College Football Writers' Bear Bryant Award in 1994 as the NCAA Division I coach of the year. He was college coach of the year as honored by The Sporting News and ESPN.

The playing surface at Autzen Stadium in Eugene, where the Ducks play their home games, was named Rich Brooks Field before the 1995 season. It was a fitting tribute for the conclusion of Brooks' tenure, which also included three years as the Ducks' athletic director, 1992-94.

Richard L. Brooks was born Aug. 20, 1941, in Forest, California, a Gold Country community which now is a ghost town. Brooks competed in football, basketball, track, and boxing at Nevada Union High in Grass Valley, California. Rich and his wife, Karen, who live in St. Louis, are parents of sons Denny, 38, and Brady, 25, and daughters Kasey, 32, and Kerri, 30.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHNNY ROLAND

Assistant Head Coach/Running Backs
18th NFL Season
Second with Rams

Roland was an All-Pro running back for the St. Louis Cardinals as a player and is in his second season as a coach on Rich Brooks' staff. Roland was running backs coach for the New York Jets from 1993-94. Prior to joining the Jets, Roland tutored Chicago Bears running backs for 10 seasons (1983-92), a decade in which Chicago topped the NFL in rushing four times. Led by Walter Payton and Neal Anderson, the Bears were the No. 1 NFL rushing team in the 1980s, averaging 153.4 yards a game. Roland, owner of radio station KIRL-AM in St. Charles, Mo., was in private business from 1978-82. He also had coaching tenures with Philadelphia (1976-78), Green Bay (1974), and the University of Notre Dame (1975).

Johnny was a running back for the Cardinals from 1966-72 and with the New York Giants in 1973. Roland was drafted in the first round by the Jets of the American Football League and in the fourth round by the Cardinals of the NFL as a "future" before his senior season at the University of Missouri. He was NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year in 1966, rushing for 696 yards and 5 touchdowns, and catching 21 passes. Roland ended his career with 3,750 yards rushing, 1,420 yards receiving, 34 touchdowns, and two Pro Bowl bids (1967-68).

A native of Corpus Christi, Tex. (5/21/43), Roland was a two-way starter at Missouri at running back and cornerback. Johnny has two sons, Johnny, 31, and James, 26, and a daughter, Cynnamon, 19. He lives in Creve Coeur, Mo.

WILLIE SHAW

Defensive Coordinator
9th NFL Season
Second with Rams

The youthful Rams defense intercepted 22 passes compared to 14 in 1994 and had 36 quarterback sacks compared to 26 the previous year under Shaw's guidance in 1995. The Rams also tied a club record with five defensive touchdowns last season. Shaw came to the Rams after coaching the secondary for the Super Bowl XXIX-participating San Diego Chargers in 1994. He held similar positions with the Detroit Lions (1985-87) and Minnesota (1992-93). The Vikings led the NFL with 24 interceptions in 1992.

Shaw began his coaching career at San Diego City College (1970-72), then moved to Stanford (1974-76), Long Beach State (1977-78), Oregon (1979), and Arizona State (1980-84). Shaw earned All-America honors as a defensive back in his senior year at the University of New Mexico.

Willie graduated with a degree in physical education from San Diego State and earned a Master's Degree in Education from San Diego State in 1973. A native of Glenmora, Louisiana, Shaw was a standout in football at Lincoln High in San Diego. He and his wife, Gay,who live in St. Louis, have a daughter, Tawnya, 25, and two sons, David, 23, a wide receiver at Stanford now serving as a graduate assistant coach at Western Washington University, and Eric, 21.

JACK REILLY

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

7th NFL Season

Second with Rams

A long and distinguished background in offensive football followed Reilly when he joined the Rams in 1995. A 29-year coaching veteran, Jack came to the Rams after serving as the Los Angeles Raiders' running backs coach in 1994 and as an assistant offensive coach for four seasons (1990-93) with the San Diego Chargers.

Jack entered the NFL after five years (1985-89) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Utah. Reilly directed an offense that led the nation with an average of 396 passing yards a game and in total offense with 546.8 yards a game in 1988. Utah ranked second in the nation in passing in 1989 and third in 1987.

Reilly also coached five years at El Camino College in Inglewood, Ca. (1980-84), serving as head coach his final three seasons and posting a 19-10 record. Reilly was a coach for 12 years at Beverly Hills High in Los Angeles.

A Boston Irishman (7/11/45), Reilly was born there and grew up in Southern California. He played quarterback for the Culver City High Centaurs. Jack played collegiately at Washington State, Santa Monica College, and Long Beach State, where he earned Little All-America honors. Reilly and his wife, Wendy, who live in Lake St. Louis, Mo., have a son, Chris, 25, and daughters Corrie, 24, and Katie, 19.

NICK ALIOTTI

Special Teams

Second Season with Rams

Aliotti coached safeties last season after coming to the Rams from Rich Brooks's University of Oregon staff. Aliotti was at Oregon from 1985, the last two years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Aliotti also coached outside linebackers, special teams, and assisted with running backs during his tenure at Oregon. Aliotti began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of California at Davis, in 1974, before moving to Oregon as a part-time assistant in 1978 and 1979. He was offensive backfield coach at Oregon State (1980-83) and offensive coordinator at Chico State in 1984.

Aliotti, a native of Pittsburg, Ca. (5/29/54), was a three-year letterman at running back for UC-Davis, from which he was graduated with a degree in Education in 1976. Nick earned his Master's degree in Physical Education and Athletic Administration from Chico State in 1990. Aliotti and his wife, Kathryn, have two children, Michael, 14, and Nicole, 10. They live in Ballwin, Mo.

STEVE BROWN

Cornerbacks

Ninth NFL Season

Second with Rams

Brown moved to a position - coach role this year after serving as Defensive Assistant/Quality Control in 1995, his first year as an NFL coach after nine seasons as a player. Brown was a starting safety with the Houston Oilers from 1983-90 and concluded his career in 1991 after signing as a Plan B free agent with the San Francisco 49ers. A third-round draft choice (83rd overall) of the Oilers in 1983, Brown was second in the AFC with a 25.6-yard kickoff return average, earning a berth on Pro Football Weekly's all-rookie team as a kick returner.

Steve was a cornerback and kick returner at the University of Oregon from 1978-82. His collegiate career included 78 kickoff returns for 1,868 yards (23.9 avg.). Brown was a two-time all-West Coast selection and earned All-America honorable mention with 70 tackles and three interceptions as a senior.

TREND SETTERS

The Rams were the first team, professional or collegiate, to have an insignia on their helmets. In 1948, halfback Fred Gehrke, an art major at the University of Southern California, hand painted the helmets blue and added the gold horns. The helmets remained hand painted until 1972 when decals were used.

Kevin has not always been a picture perfect athlete. He was cut from the Lincoln High junior varsity football team as a freshman, because he was short, fat and uncoordinated. Kevin played the saxophone in the band instead. After sprouting up from 5-9 to 6-2, Kevin made the football team as a sophomore and later established a single game school record with 27 tackles that still stands today. Playing the sax is now just a hobby.

UNIFORM ADJUSTMENT

In 1958, Rams owner Dan Reeves switched the team's uniforms from blue and gold to blue and white, because the color gold did not translate well on television, predominantly black and white at the time. Reeves explored using different shades of gold that would look good on television. "Buttercup yellow" was the only shade that would work, but Reeves would not allow his team to wear "buttercup yellow." The Rams played in blue and white until owner Carroll Rosenbloom switched the uniforms back to the original blue and gold in 1973.

ST. LOUIS HISTORY LESSON

1873: Susan Blow, the daughter of a wealthy St. Louis industrialist, opened the first successful kindergarten in the United States.

1874: Eads Bridge, the first bridge built over the Mississippi river out of St. Louis, was completed on July 4, 1874. The bridge was expected to represent the gateway to the "Future Great City of the World," and attracted the largest public celebration in St. Louis history, including a 14-mile long parade.

1876: Adolphus Busch introduced Budweiser beer to the local community and used his marketing skills to transform the local brew into "The King of Bottled Beers."

To get better control over its own taxes and city services, St. Louis City separated from St. Louis County in what was known as "The Great Divorce" in 1876.

1904: St. Louis hosted the World's Fair at Forest Park and the IIIrd Olympiad at Washington University. The Fair, also known as the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, attracted nearly 20 million people during a seven-month span, from May until December.

1927: Charles Lindberg made the first trans-Atlantic flight from New York to Paris, aboard "The Spirit of St. Louis" on May 20, 1927.

1995 SEASON

1995 SEASON REVIEW

Game #1
RAMS 17, Green Bay Packers 14
Lambeau Field, September 3, 1995
Sunny, 72 degrees

The Rams ended Green Bay's 10-game winning streak at Lambeau Field with a 17-14 victory. Sean Gilbert led a defensive attack that forced three Green Bay turnovers and produced four sacks. Gilbert had five tackles and 1.5 sacks and deflected a Brett Favre pass that was intercepted by Keith Lyle on the game's first possession. The Rams took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter thanks to back-to-back big plays by Isaac Bruce, who made his first career start at wide receiver. With Craig Hentrich back to punt, Bruce raced around the left side and blocked and recovered the punt at the Green Bay 23. On the very next play, Bruce shook a defender and caught a 23-yard touchdown pass from Chris Miller. After being shutout in the first half, the Packers tied the score in the third when Brett Favre hit Mark Chmura with a seven-yard touchdown pass at the 8:13 mark. The Rams responded with an eight-play, 64-yard drive that resulted in a 30-yard touchdown pass from Miller to Alexander Wright with 3:02 remaining in the third quarter. The defense set up the game-clinching score when Roman Phifer intercepted Favre and returned it to the Green Bay 20 yard line. Steve McLaughlin connected on a 19-yard field goal to give St. Louis a 17-7 lead with 5:22 left to play. The Packers shaved the lead to three when Favre found Charles Jordan in the back of the end zone with 1:36 remaining. Anthony Parker covered the onside kick for the Rams to end a seven game losing streak.

Game #2
RAMS 17, New Orleans Saints 13
Busch Stadium, September 10, 1995
Sunny, 74 degrees

The Rams used a balanced attack to defeat New Orleans, 17-13, in the first regular season NFL game in St. Louis since December 13, 1987. It was the 400th victory in franchise history. The win also snapped an eight-game home losing streak to the Saints and gave the Rams their first 2-0 start since 1989. New Orleans took a 3-0 lead on its first possession when Chip Lohmiller converted from 33 yards out with 8:45 left in the first quarter. The Rams responded with an 11-play, 73-yard drive that resulted in a 33-yard touchdown pass from Chris Miller to Isaac Bruce, giving St. Louis a 7-3 lead that it never relinquished. The Rams built a 10-3 lead with 9:00 left in the second quarter when Steve McLaughlin hit a 31-yard field goal. The defense helped secure a 17-3 halftime lead when Todd Lyght stepped in front of a Jim Everett pass and returned the interception 29 yards for a touchdown. The Saints gave chase in the second half when Everett found Torrance Small for a one-yard touchdown pass at the close of the third quarter, making it 17-10. New Orleans cut the lead to four when Lohmiller converted a 34-yard field goal with 6:13 remaining to play. They would not get any closer, because the Rams used up the rest of the clock with a 12-play drive, that included a fourth and one conversion by Keith Lyle on special teams. The Rams finished the game with 322 yards total offense, including 151 yards rushing and 171 yards passing.

Game #3

RAMS 31, Carolina 10

Clemson Memorial Stadium, September 17, 1995
Sunny, 80 degrees

The Rams forced seven turnovers and spoiled the expansion Carolina Panthers' home opener with a 31-10 win at Clemson Memorial Stadium. The Rams intercepted five Carolina passes, recovered two fumbles and scored two defensive touchdowns. St. Louis opened the scoring two minutes into the second quarter when Jerome Bettis crashed into the end zone from two yards out for a 7-0 lead. The defense helped create the next score when Carlos Jenkins sacked Jack Trudeau and forced a fumble that was recovered by Kevin Carter at the Carolina 27 yard line. Three plays later, Chris Miller connected with Jessie Hester in the corner of the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:59 remaining in the first half. John Kasay put the Panthers on the board with a 45-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. The Rams built the lead to 21-3 when Anthony Parker picked up a fumble and raced 28 yards for a touchdown with 5:36 left in the third. Todd Lyght collected his second interception of the season to set up a 34-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, giving the Rams a 24-3 lead at the end of the third quarter. Torin Dorn spoiled rookie Kerry Collins' NFL debut by intercepting his third career pass and taking it back 24 yards for a touchdown and a 31-3 Rams' lead. Collins scored on a one-yard run with 1:57 left to complete the scoring. The Rams improved to 3-0 for the 15th time in team history and first time since 1989 when they started the season with a 5-0 record.

Game #4
RAMS 34, Chicago 28
Busch Stadium, September 24, 1995
Partly Cloudy, 62 degrees

St. Louis used a 14-point third quarter to take control of the game and defeat the Chicago Bears at Busch Stadium. The Rams improved their record to 4-0, their best start since 1989, thanks to a balanced offensive attack and two more takeaways. The Rams scored on the second play from scrimmage when Toby Wright picked up an Erik Kramer fumble in the backfield and raced 73 yards for a touchdown with 14:05 left in the first quarter. The Rams built the lead to 10-0 with 3:35 left in the first after Anthony Parker recovered a Rashaan Salaam fumble at the Bears' 24-yard line. Steve McLaughlin connected on a 45-yard field goal three plays later. The Bears answered with a nine- play, 53-yard drive that ended when Kramer found tight end Keith Jennings for a 15-yard touchdown. The Rams responded with a touchdown of their own when Todd Kinchen collected a six-yard pass from Chris Miller, capping a 12-play, 68-yard drive. The Bears made it a 17-14 game when Kramer hooked up with Curtis Conway for a 20-yard touchdown with 4:28 left in the half. Kramer gave Chicago the lead at halftime by hitting Michael Timpson for a 12-yard touchdown with 47 seconds left. The Rams took the lead for good by opening the third quarter with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that consumed 5:44. Miller capped the effort with a one-yard pass to Marv Cook on fourth down to give St. Louis a 24-21 lead. Miller threw his third touchdown pass of the game, a 12-yarder to Troy Drayton, to give the Rams a 31-21 lead with 54 seconds left in the third. Chicago trimmed the lead to 31-28 when Kramer found Jeff Graham for a 47-yard touchdown with 12:59 left. The Rams controlled the ball for 10:17 in the fourth quarter and 21:33 in the second half to hold off the Chicago rally. McLaughlin completed a perfect 2-for-2 day with a 25-yard field goal with 2:42 left to wrap-up the scoring.

Game #5
Indianapolis 21, RAMS 18
RCA Dome, October 1, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

The Indianapolis Colts benefited from a bye week and a big day from Marshall Faulk to hand the Rams their first loss of the season, 21-18, before 58,616 fans at the RCA Dome. Faulk, the youngest player ever to start in a Pro Bowl, rushed for a career-high 177 yards on 19 carries and scored three touchdowns for the 2-2 Colts. It overshadowed an outstanding performace by Rams' receiver Isaac Bruce, who caught eight passes for 181 yards and two touchdowns. The Rams got off to a fast start when Chris Miller hooked up with Bruce on the first play from scrimmage for a 72-yard gain to the Colt six yard line. Miller found Bruce on a quick slant two plays later to give the Rams a 7-0 lead. Indianapolis took advantage of the Rams' first turnover of the season, a Miller interception in the first quarter. Faulk raced 32 yards for a touchdown three plays later to tie the score at 7-7. St. Louis jumped out to a 10-7 lead three seconds into the second quarter when Steve McLaughlin hit a 29-yard field goal. But the lead proved to be a short-lived. Faulk, who finished with 222 total yards, scored on a 33-yard run 47 seconds later to put the Colts up for good, 14-10. Faulk scored his third touchdown of the game on a one-yard run with 4:28 left in the third quarter, capping a seven-play, 56-yard drive. The Rams mounted a late rally in the fourth quarter when Miller found Bruce for a 34-yard touchdown with 52 seconds left to play. Miller and Bruce combined for the two point conversion, cutting the Colts' lead to 21-18. McLaughlin's onside kick was covered by Brian Stablein to ruin the Rams' comeback bid.

Game #6
RAMS 21, Atlanta 19
Busch Stadium, October 12, 1995
Clear, 78 degrees

The Rams used a big game from Isaac Bruce and a swarming defense to defeat Atlanta, 21-19, in a battle of first place teams. Bruce's 10 catches for 191 yards and the Rams 451 yards in total offense were enough get past Atlanta in front of a Busch Stadium crowd of 59,700. The Falcons managed just 192 yards of offense and 10 first downs, but made it close with a pair of special teams touchdowns. Bruce opened the game's scoring with 1:45 left in the first quarter on a 59 yard touchdown catch from quarterback Chris Miller. The Rams took a 14-0 lead on their next drive when Johnny Bailey scored on a 12-yard touchdown run. Atlanta turned a potential 17-0 hole into a 14-7 deficit when Kevin Ross returned a blocked field goal attempt 83 yards for a touchdown. St. Louis made a big special teams play of its own on an Atlanta punt late in the half. Todd Kinchen fielded a punt at the Rams' 39 and one-hopped a cross-field lateral to Bruce, who returned it 52 yards to the Atlanta nine yard line. Three plays later Miller hit Bruce for a 9-yard touchdown with 41 seconds left in the first half. After trailing 21-10 at the break, Atlanta took advantage of a fortunate bounce on a Sean Landeta punt to close the gap to 21-16. Eric Metcalf scooped up the loose ball and raced 66-yards for the score. Former Rams' kicker Tony Zendejas booted a 40-yard field goal to get the Falcons within two points with 11:58 left in the game. They would get no closer, though, as the Rams offense consumed the game's final 6:36 and St. Louis moved to 5-1. Miller completed 27 of 38 passes for 328 yards and two touchdowns, while running back Jerome Bettis added 88 rushing yards.

Game #7

San Francisco 49ers 44, RAMS 10

Busch Stadium, October 22, 1995

Sunny, 65 degrees

In a battle for first place in the NFC West, the defending Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers took advantage of four St. Louis turnovers to beat the Rams, 44-10, in front of a Busch Stadium record crowd of 59,915. St. Louis spotted the 49ers 14 points in the game's first 4:14 and never recovered. On the Rams' opening drive, Dedrick Doge intercepted Miller and returned it to the St. Louis 35. On the next play, 49er quarterback Elvis Grbac, playing in place of injured Steve Young, rolled out and hit John Taylor for a touchdown to put San Francisco up 7-0. On the Rams' next possession, Miller was picked off again, this time by Ken Norton, Jr., who returned it for a 21-yard touchdown. After a 25-yard field goal by St. Louis kicker Steve McLaughlin, Jerry Rice scored the first of two touchdowns on a 4-yard pass from Grbac to give the 49ers a 24-3 lead at the half. The Rams' lone touchdown came in the fourth quarter when Mark Rypien, in relief of Miller, hit Jessie Hester over the middle for a 38-yard score. Inspite of the loss, Isaac Bruce became the first wide receiver in NFL history to reach the 170-yard mark in three consecutive games by racking up 173 yards on nine receptions.

Game #8

Philadelphia Eagles 20, RAMS 9

Veterans Stadium, October 29, 1995

Cloudy and Windy, 57 degrees

The Rams outgained Philadelphia 330-274, but could not overcome four turnovers in losing for the third time in four games. Philadelphia opened the game's scoring two minutes into the second quarter when quarterback Rodney Peete hit Calvin Williams for a 33-yard touchdown, giving the Eagles a 7-0 lead. After a 20-yard field goal by Gary Anderson capped a 17-play, 80-yard drive, Philadelphia led 10-0 at the half. The Rams dominated the second half, totaling 267 yards of offense while allowing the Eagles just 67 yards and three first downs, but were plagued by several costly turnovers. On its second drive of the third quarter, the Rams drove 57 yards to the Eagles' five yard line and cut Philadelphia's lead to 10-3 on a 29-yard Steve McLaughlin field goal. After the Ram defense forced Philadelphia to punt on its first four second half possessions, St. Louis found the endzone on its first drive of the final quarter. Paced by Isaac Bruce's three catches for 50 yards, the Rams drove 78 yards in seven plays, culminating in a 12-yard touchdown pass from Miller to Bruce. The go-ahead two-point conversion attempt failed when Philadelphia stopped Carlos Jenkins short of the goal line to secure its 10-9 lead. The Eagles took control of the game in the fourth quarter when Kevin Johnson scopped up a Chris Miller fumble and returned 37 yards for a touchdown. The Rams fell to 5-3 but remained in a tie for first place in the NFC

West. In the loss, Bruce posted his fouth consecutive 100-yard receiving game, and fifth of the 1995 season.

Game #9

New Orleans Saints 19, RAMS 10

The Superdome, November 5, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

On the strength of four field goals by newly acquired kicker Doug Brien and 106 rushing yards by running back Mario Bates, the New Orleans Saints handed the Rams their third straight loss and fourth in five games, 19-10. The Saints used a ball-control offense, racking up nearly 40 minutes in time of possession and ran 24 more offensive plays than St. Louis. The Rams played strong early, led by their defense. On its opening possession, New Orleans drove into St. Louis territory but was forced to punt after consecutive sacks by D'Marco Farr and Fred Stokes. The Rams got the ball back and drove 86 yards, including 28 yards on the ground by rookie running back Brent Moss, and posted the game's first score. With just over two minutes remaining in the first quarter, quarterback Chris Miller fired a 55-yard touchdown pass to Isaac Bruce to put the Rams up 7-0. A Ray Zellars touchdown and the first of Brien's career-high four field goals put the Saints up 10-7 with 3:51 left in the first half. A Brien 26-yard field goal put New Orleans up 13-7 in the third quarter, before the Rams defensive line came up big again. Rookie Kevin Carter sacked Saints quarterback Jim Everett and forced a fumble at the New Orleans 25 yard line. Kicker Dean Biasucci hit a 32-yard field goal for his first ever points as a Ram to make it 13-10. That was as close as the Rams would get, however, as New Orleans controlled the ball for 12:40 of the fourth quarter to ice the game and preserve its 19-10 victory. Isaac Bruce caught eight passes for 135 yards, extending his streak of consecutive 100-yard games to five, tying the club record held by Elroy Hirsch and Bob Boyd.

Game #10

RAMS 28, Carolina Panthers 17

Trans World Dome, November 12, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

In the inaugural game of the new Trans World Dome, the Rams ended their three game losing streak with a 28-17 win over the Carolina Panthers. The St. Louis defense returned to its early season opportunistic form, forcing six Panther turnovers, including two interceptions by safety Toby Wright. Veteran offensive tackle Jackie Slater started for St. Louis at right tackle to set an NFL record by playing in his 20th season with the same team. Jerome Bettis rambled for a season-high 91 yards and had the honor of scoring the first ever touchdown in the Trans World Dome on a 1-yard run with 10:47 left in the second quarter. After Wright intercepted Carolina's Kerry Collins, the Rams took a 14-0 lead with 3:25 left in the half when Chris Miller hooked up with Isaac Bruce in the back of the endzone for a 12-yard touchdown. With the score 14-10, St. Louis scored two touchdowns in the first 1:43 of the fourth quarter to put the game away. After a Miller to Troy Drayton touchdown pass on the quarter's first play, D'Marco Farr sacked Collins and forced a fumble on the Panthers' next posession. Defensive back Torin Dorn recovered the fumble and returned it 26 yards for his second score against Carolina in 1995. With the 28-17 win, the Rams moved back into a first place tie in the NFC West with the Falcons and 49ers at 6-4. In addition, with his 110 receiving yards, Bruce established a new team record with six consecutive 100-yard receiving games, one shy of the all-time NFL mark.

Game #11

Atlanta Falcons 31, RAMS 6

Georgia Dome, November 19, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

With outstanding games from quarterback Jeff George, running back Craig Heyward, and wide receiver Terance Mathis, the Atlanta Falcons topped the Rams, 31-6, in a matchup of first place teams in the NFC West. The Falcons took control of the game early after Terry Taylor intercepted St. Louis' Chris Miller at midfield and returned it to the St. Louis 18-yard line. Three plays later, George and Mathis combined for their first of three touchdowns on the day, an 18-yarder that put Atlanta up 7-0 midway through the first quarter. George and Mathis hooked up again 1:24 into the second quarter, this time from 17 yards out. The score completed a nine play, 91-yard drive for the Falcons as they took a 14-0 lead. St. Louis got on the board before the half with an impressive drive of its own, a 12-play, 5:39 drive covering 83 yards that included Miller completions of 24 yards Todd Kinchen and 21 yards to Isaac Bruce. The drive was capped by a Miller to Troy Drayton two-yard touchdown pass with :38 left in the half that closed the gap to 14-6. The run and shoot of the Falcons came out shooting after the break as Atlanta built its lead to 24-6 on a 41-yard touchdown catch by Eric Metcalf and a 23-yard field goal by Morten Andersen. Heyward, who finished with 117 yards on 20 carries, took over in the fourth quarter as Atlanta held the ball for over nine minutes in the game's final 11:32. Mathis' third touchdown from George provided the final 31-6 margin. Mathis finished with 184 yards on 10 catches.

Game #12

San Francisco 49ers 41, RAMS 13

3Com Park, November 26, 1995

Mostly Sunny, 61 degrees

Boosted by the return of quarterback Steve Young from an injured shoulder, the San Francisco 49ers handed the Rams their fifth consecutive loss on the road, 41-13. Young threw for three touchdowns and the 49er defense forced a season-high five turnovers by the Rams, including four interceptions returned for a San Francisco team-record 171 yards. St. Louis controlled the game's early minutes led by its defense. The Rams got on the scoreboard after Keith Lyle forced a Jerry Rice fumble that was recovered by Shane Conlan on the San Francisco seven yard line. Three plays later, quarterback Chris Miller hit Todd Kinchen for a two-yard touchdown with 4:30 left in the first quarter.The lead did not last, however, as San Francisco went on to score the game's next 35 points. On the 49ers' two drives following Kinchen's touchdown, rookie receiver J.J. Stokes scored the first two touchdowns of his career. The first, a 16-yarder, capped an eight play, 69-yard drive, while the second, an 18-yard strike from Young, gave San Francisco the lead for good, 14-7. Chris Miller interceptions set up the 49ers' next scores, highlighted by an 86-yard interception return for a touchdown by Eric Davis in the closing minute of the first half to put San Francisco up 28-7. On the 49ers' first possession after the half, St. Louis safety Toby Wright picked off a Young pass for his fifth interception of the season. Quarterback Mark Rypien, replacing Miller in the second half, hooked up with Isaac Bruce for a 21-yard touchdown pass, making the score 31-13. Two Jeff Wilkins fourth quarter field goals completed the scoring as the Rams fell to 6-6 on the season.

Game #13
RAMS 23, New York Jets 20
The Meadowlands, December 3, 1995
Sunny, 51 degrees

Led by a relentless defense that totaled six quarterback sacks and allowed just 60 rushing yards, the St. Louis Rams topped the New York Jets 23-20. With the win, St. Louis improved to 7-6 on the season and stayed alive for a playoff berth with three games remaining, all at home. D'Marco Farr led the way for the Rams with a career-high 3.5 sacks, his first career interception, and a forced fumble. Late in the first quarter, St. Louis got on the scoreboard first when Troy Drayton hauled in a screen pass from Chris Miller and rambled 28 yards for his third touchdown of the season, putting the Rams up 7-0. Midway through the second quarter, Mark Rypien replaced an injured Miller (concussion), after being hit by Marvin Washington, who was ejected. The Jets tied the game when Jets' safety Gary Jones intercepted a tipped Rypien pass and returned it 49 yards for a score. Rypien had the last laugh, though, and after New York took a 10-7 third quarter on a Nick Lowery field goal, Rypien led a St. Louis comeback completing 11 out of 19 passes with two touchdowns in the second half. He hit Isaac Bruce for a 1-yard touchdown to put the Rams up for good, 14-10, with 1:41 left in the third quarter. The Jets closed to 14-13 on another Lowery kick, but Rypien and Bruce teamed up again on St. Louis' ensuing drive,this time from 11 yards out, pushing the lead to eight points at 21-13. The Rams' "Rushmen" thwarted New York's comeback attempt, when, on consecutive drives, Farr intercepted Boomer Esiason, and Kevin Carter sacked Esiason in the endzone for a safety. The Jets scored a late touchdown to make the final score 23-20.

Thurman Thomas and Darick Holmes combined for 219 rushing yards and Jim Kelly threw four touchdown passes as the Buffalo Bills beat the Rams 45-27 in front of a sellout crowd in the Trans World Dome. Making his first start of the season in place of an injured Chris Miller, quarterback Mark Rypien threw for 372 yards on a Rams' record 55 pass attempts. His efforts were not enough, however, as the Bills' fast break, no huddle offense controlled the game. Buffalo struck first on a 23-yard touchdown pass from Kelly to Bill Brooks 6:06 into the game. St. Louis countered on the ensuing possession when Rypien hit Todd Kinchen for a six-yard touchdown. On Buffalo's next offensive play, Kelly was intercepted by Mike Scurlock who returned it to the Bills' 13-yard line, setting up St. Louis' go-ahead score. Dean Biasucci booted a 28-yarder to put the Rams up 10-7 with 3:15 remaining in the first quarter. The game's momentum shifted dramatically early in the second quarter. Kelly led the Bills on an 11-play, 98-yard touchdown drive, culminating in his one-yard pass to Thomas. Buffalo built its lead to 21-13 at the half and to 35-16 after three quarters. Despite a four-of-four field goal performance by Biasucci and Isaac Bruce's nine catches for 136 yards, St. Louis dropped to 7-7 on the season.

Game #15

Washington Redskins 35, RAMS 23

Trans World Dome, December 17, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

The Washington Redskins returned two St. Louis turnovers for touchdowns and held the ball for over 11 minutes in the third quarter as they beat the Rams, 35-23. With the loss, St. Louis fell to 7-8 on the season, the team's first time under the .500 mark in 1995. In his second consecutive start, Mark Rypien completed 34 of 50 passes for 347 yards as the Rams outgained Washington 441-253. On the game's first play, St. Louis completed a 50-yard a double-reverse, flee-flicker pass from Rypien to Alexander Wright to set up its first score, a Dean Biasucci 25-yard field goal. The Rams built their lead to 10-0 on a one-yard Jerome Bettis touchdown run with 3:29 left in the first quarter. Washington came back to score 28 unanswered points, including a 51-yard interception return by Tom Carter, and led 28-10 after three quarters. After Keith Lyle intercepted Redskins' quarterback Gus Frerotte on the St. Louis eight-yard line, the Rams completed their longest scoring drive of the season. Johnny Bailey totaled 42 yards, including a five-yard touchdown run, on St. Louis' 12-play, 92-yard march that cut Washington's lead to 28-17. Minutes later Rypien and Wright connected again, this time for a 21-yard touchdown. After the two-point conversion failed, the Rams trailed by only five with 11:06 to play. St. Louis' comeback fell short, however, as Tony Woods returned a Todd Kinchen fumble three yards for a touchdown, securing a 35-23 Washington victory. In the loss, Isaac Bruce became only the 12th player in NFL history to reach 100 catches in a season, and Alexander Wright posted his second career 100-yard game with eight catches for 132 yards.

Game #16
Miami 41, RAMS 22
Trans World Dome, December 24, 1995
Indoors, 72 degrees

The Miami Dolphins took advantage of four St. Louis turnovers and defeated the Rams. St. Louis was unable to overcome the four miscues despite outstanding performances by Mark Rypien and Isaac Bruce. Rypien tied a Rams record with his third consecutive 300-yard passing effort and Bruce became the ninth player in team history to have 200 yards receiving in a single game. Rypien threw for 320 yards and two touchdowns, while Bruce finished with 210 yards on 15 catches. The Rams took an early 3-0 lead in the first quarter when Dean Biasucci converted a 42-yard field goal. The Dolphins answered with a Pete Stoyanovich field goal from 33 yards out and took the lead, 10-7, on a 3-yard touchdown run by Bernie Parmalee. Biasucci made the score 10-6 in the second quarter by drilling a 27-yard field goal with 10:23 left in the first half. Miami took control with two touchdowns in less than four minutes. Dan Marino hit Irving Fryar for a 6-yard touchdown with 7:10 left in the second quarter and found O.J. McDuffie for a 7-yard score and a 24-6 lead with 3:28 remaining in the first half. The Rams made it 24-12 just before the half when Rypien found Todd Kinchen with a 7-yard touchdown pass. St. Louis moved even closer in the third quarter when Rypien hit Bruce for a 5-yard touchdown, but the Dolphins held off the surge with a 14-point fourth quarter, including Parmalee's second touchdown run.

PREP PAIRS

The Rams have two former high school teammates and a pair of junior high school teammates on their roster. Brad Ottis and Zach Wiegert attended Bergan High in Fremont, Neb. James Harris and Dana Howard were teammates at Clark Junior High in East St. Louis, IL., but went to separate high schools. Howard attended East St. Louis High, while Harris, two years ahead of Howard, transferred to Lincoln High. The Rams have one other high school connections. Robert Jones and Ashley Sheppard attended Fork Union Military Academy in Fork Union, Va., one year apart.

1943 Clark resigns. Chile Walsh is named head coach, but NFL grants Rams permission to suspend operations for one season because of wartime difficulties. Reeves buys out Levy. Riley Matheson is lone All-Pro selection.

1944 Chile Walsh becomes general manager and appoints Buff Donelli as head coach. Pickup team finishes 4-6-0. Riley Matheson collects All-Pro honors for fourth consecutive season.

1945 Donelli joins military service. Walsh names his brother, Adam Walsh, as head coach. Third round draft choice (a future) Bob Waterfield from UCLA joins team as T-formation quarterback and leads Rams to 9-1-0 season for first divisional title in team's history. On icy field, Rams defeat Washington Redskins, 15-14, at Cleveland for world title. Waterfield becomes first player to receive unanimous vote for official NFL Most Valuable Player award. Walsh is named coach of the year. Riley Matheson, Jim Benton, Eberle Schultz and Jim Gillette receive All-Pro honors. Eddie Kotal joins team as chief scout and Bill John begins 29-year tenure as business manager.

1946 Reeves moves franchise to Los Angeles early in the year. After disappointing 6-4-1 season, both Walshes resign. Rams sign end Woody Strode and back Kenny Washington, two African-Americans, a year before Jackie Robinson breaks color barrier with Brooklyn Dodgers.

1947 Reeves assumes duties of general manager. Bob Snyder is named head coach with Joe Former Rams RB and current scout Lawrence McCutcheon.

DT Merlin Olsen

Stydahar as new assistant. Team is talent-heavy but injury-ridden in 6-6-0 season. Offensive linemen Riley Matheson and Dick Huffman are selected to All-Pro team. Reeves sells part interests to former partner Levy and to Edwin and Harold Pauley and Hal Seley.

1948 Clark Shaughnessy joins staff as advisory coach. On Sept. 3, Snyder resigns and Clark Shaughnessy becomes head coach. Team wins four of last five to post 6-5-1 mark. Fred Naumetz and Dick Huffman make All-Pro.

1949 Team wins first six games then hangs on to win first divisional title since moving west. Heavy rain holds down L.A. crowd as Philadelphia Eagles skid to 14-0 win over Rams in NFL title game. Rookie Norm Van Brocklin joins team and gives Rams top-notch one-two quarterback punch. Elroy Hirsch has fine rookie year. Rams have five players selected to All-Pro team—Dick Huffman, Tom Fears, Fred Naumetz, Bob Waterfield and Milan Lazetich.

1950 NFL absorbs AAFC, leaving Rams as lone pro team in Los Angeles after four years of two-league existence. In February, Stydahar becomes head coach, replacing Shaughnessy. Club opens new offices on Beverly Boulevard. Bill Granholm begins 18-year tenure as equipment manager. Team sets 22 league records in rolling to conference title tie. Waterfield and end Tom Fears lead playoff win over Bears, 24-14, but following week in Cleveland, Lou Groza's late field goal stops Rams' title hopes, 30-28. Waterfield is named NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Fears, Dick Huffman and Dick Reinhard receive All-Pro recognition.

1951 Rams win third straight conference title on final day of season, then defeat Cleveland at the Coliseum, 24-17, on 73-yard pass, Van Brocklin to Fears, for first world title since moving to Los Angeles.Running backs Tank Younger and Dan Towler join Stan West and Larry Brink on All-Pro team.

1952 After team loses three straight preseason games and drops league opener by big score, Stydahar resigns. He is replaced as head coach by Hamp Pool. Team loses two of next three, but wins last eight to tie for conference title. Rams lose playoff in Detroit. Rams trade 11 players to Dallas for rookie Les Richter, who then enters Army for two years. Waterfield retires. Dan Towler, Larry Brink and Stan West are named to All-Pro team for second straight year, while Herb Rich makes it for first time.

1953 Club co-owner Harold Pauley passes away. Team compiles 8-3-1 record, losing three games by total of eight points to finish third in conference. Rams defeat world champ Lions in both games. Elroy Hirsch, Dan Towler, Andy Robustelli and Don Paul named All-Pro.

1954 Bonus choice Bill Wade and tradee Les Richter both join Rams as rookies two years after going from college into military service. Norm Van Brocklin earns NFL Player of Year by Washington D.C. Touchdown Club. Team has disappointing 6-5-1 mark. Split end Bob Boyd is lone Ram to be named All-Pro. All assistant coaches resign. Pool soon follows suit.

1955 On Jan. 26, Rams hire Sid Gillman, head coach at University of Cincinnati, to replace Pool. Fine defensive year and clutch field goal kicking by Richter give team hard-fought 8-3-1 record for conference title. Cleveland wins title game at Coliseum 38-14. Duane Putnam, Norm Van Brocklin, Ron Waller, Andy Robustelli, Les Richter and Will Sherman give Rams six All-Pro selections.

1956 In form reversal, team loses five consecutive early-season games and finishes in cellar tie with 4-8 record. Duane Putnam and Les Richter earn All-Pro honors for second straight year.

1957 Ram owners name former Ram publicist Pete Rozelle as general manager. Team loses squeakers on road to 49ers and Lions, finishing 6-6-0, but only two games behind conference leaders. Guard Duane Putnam receives All-Pro recognition.

1958 In preseason trade, Van Brocklin goes to Eagles. Bill Wade sets many Ram passing marks en route to 8-4-0 year. Three Rams, Duane Putnam, Del Shofner and Jon Arnett, are first team All-Pro choices.

1959 Team has general letdown and many injuries for worst season since 1937, finishing 2-10-0. Ollie Matson, acquired in big trade, is workhorse at fullback. On last day of season, Gillman and staff resign.Del Shofner and Duane Putnam are repeat choices to All-Pro team.

1960 Following death of Bert Bell, Pete Rozelle is named NFL commissioner. Elroy Hirsch replaces Rozelle as Rams general manager. Bob Waterfield is named Ram head coach. Team finishes 4-7-1.

1961 Rams trade Bill Wade, Del Shofner, John Guzik for Zeke Bratkowski, Lindon Crow and 1962 first draft choice, which makes it possible to draft both Roman Gabriel and Merlin Olsen. Revamped Rams finish strongly after slow start, but still show 4-10-0 deficit. Split end Jim Phillips makes first team All-Pro.

1962 Rams lose four of first five games by narrow margins, then show only occasional surges of success en route to 1-12-1 year. Dick Bass provides bright spot with All-Pro selection. Waterfield resigns after eighth game. Harland Svare named interim head coach. On Dec. 27, in closed auction, 1951 Division Title clinched.

Rams All-Pro lineman Joe Scibelli (71) and Charlie Cowan (73).

Reeves reacquires control of Rams, purchasing full interests of co-owners Pauley, Levy, Seley and Bob Hope.

1963 Reeves sells 49% interest in Rams to Gene Autry, Bob Reynolds, Leonard Firestone, Paul A. O'Bryan, Robert Lehman, J.D. Stetson Coleman and Joseph A. Thomas. Svare is retained. Les Richter retires before season. After 0-5 record, Gabriel is reinstated as starting QB and plays last nine games without relief, guiding team to 5-4 mark and season record of 5-9-0. Rosey Grier is acquired from New York Giants and joins Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Lamar Lundy to form original Fearsome Foursome.

1964 Rams sign 10-year pact to play in "new look" Coliseum's "stadium-within-a-stadium." Fourteen rookies make the season squad. Club finishes fifth with 5-7-2 record. Deacon Jones records first 20-sack season in league history with 22. Merlin Olsen is selected to first team All-Pro.

1965 After winning only one of first 10, Rams take three of last four against top two teams in each conference, but Svare is dismissed. Deacon Jones and Merlin Olsen receive first team All-Pro honors.

1966 After a court fight, George Allen is released by George Halas from his assistant coaching duties with the Chicago Bears to become head coach of the Rams. NFL and AFL merge in spring. Bob Kelley, "Voice of the Rams" since the club's beginning in 1937, dies in September. Team finishes 8-6. Rams defense has three players named to first All-Pro—Merlin Olsen, Deacon Jones and Maxie Baughan.

1967 After 17 years on Beverly Boulevard, club moves to new building on Pico. Training camp is also moved to California State College at Fullerton after five years at Chapman College in Orange. Equipment manager Bill Granholm leaves club after 18 years to take position in league office.Don Hewitt begins 28-year tenure as equipment manager. Rams record first unbeaten preseason in history with six wins, including victories over first-ever AFL opponents, San Diego and Kansas City. Team completes finest win-loss season ever with 11-1-2 league record to win Coastal Division Championship, the first title of any kind since 1955, then loses to Green Bay 28-7 in Western Conference Championship Game. George Allen receives NFL Coach of Year honors by Sporting News. Repeat winners Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Maxie Baughan are joined by newcomers Charlie Cowan and Eddie Meador on All-Pro team. Jones establishes NFL record with 26 sacks and becomes first defensive lineman to post 100 solo tackles in a single season.

1968 After playoff win over Cleveland in January, team finishes regular season with 10-3-1 record, second in Coastal Division to Baltimore's 13-1 mark. Attendance is over one million for second straight year and Ram defense sets new 14-game NFL record for fewest yards allowed. On Dec. 26, Allen is dismissed as head coach, but is re-hired two weeks later. Deacon Jones is named NFL Defensive Player of Year for second straight season after registering 24 sacks. Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador receive All-Pro honors.

1969 After 20 years with the Rams as a player, general manager and assistant to the president, Elroy Hirsch leaves club to become athletic director at the University of Wisconsin. He is replaced by Public Relations Director Jack Teele, and John Sanders becomes Assistant General Manager. Team wins Coastal Division with 11-3 record before losing to Minnesota in Western Conference title game, 23-20. Quarterback Roman Gabriel is unanimous choice as the NFL's Most Valuable Player. Bob Brown, Charlie Cowan, Tom Mack, Gabriel, Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen and Eddie Meador give Rams a team record seven All-Pro selections.

1970 Playoff Bowl victory over Dallas in January heads Rams toward their 25th year in Southern California. With the completion of the merger of the NFL and AFL, the Rams join San Francisco, Atlanta and New Orleans in the Western Division of the National Conference of the new 26-team National Football League. Rams finish second to 49ers with 9-4-1 record. George Allen's contract is not renewed. Deacon Jones, Merlin Olsen, Bob Brown and Eddie Meador are named All-Pro.

1971 On April 15, owner Daniel F. Reeves dies of cancer in New York. His longtime friend and business associate, William A. Barnes, becomes President and General Manager. Tommy Prothro replaces Allen. Playing the toughest schedule in the NFL, the Rams finish with an 8-5-1 record, second to 49ers in the NFC West. Linebacker Isiah Robertson is lone All-Pro choice.

1972 In a history-making move, Baltimore Colts owner Carroll Rosenbloom trades the Baltimore franchise to Robert Irsay in exchange for the Rams. Irsay had purchased the Rams from the estate of the late Dan Reeves. The transaction was completed and announced on July 14. Rosenbloom, the most successful owner in the NFL over the last two decades, brings with him to Los Angeles Don Klosterman, Rosenbloom's general manager in Baltimore. After five years at Cal State Fullerton, Rams move training site to Cal State Long Beach. After 6-7-1 season, all coaches are dismissed. Tom Mack and Coy Bacon are first team All-Pro choices.

1973 An observer in '72, Rosenbloom begins to make changes early in 1973, and they pay off quickly. His choice for head coach, former Detroit assistant Chuck Knox, leads team to 12-2 season, winningest in Rams history, and Knox becomes "Coach of the Year." Roman Gabriel is traded to Philadelphia and the new quarterback, former San Diego Charger John Hadl, is NFC "Player of the Year." Hadl is joined on All-Pro First Team by Harold Jackson, Joe Scibelli, Tom Mack, Jack Youngblood and Isiah Robertson. Rams win NFC West title, but lose in first round of playoffs to Dallas. Other changes introduced by Rosenbloom include return to blue and gold uniforms. Club returns to Cal State Fullerton for summer training.

1974 Carroll Rosenbloom's son, Steve, takes over as Assistant to the President. After 3-2 start, Rams trade John Hadl to Green Bay for five draft choices in bold move that stuns the football world.

Hadl's backup, James Harris, becomes starter and leads team to 10-4 record, its second straight NFC Western title and its first playoff victory since 1951 (a 19-10 win over Washington) before the Rams bow to Minnesota, 14-10, in NFC title game. Merlin Olsen wins Bert Bell Trophy as NFL's Most Valuable Player. Tom Mack, Lawrence McCutcheon, Jack Youngblood, Fred Dryer, Isiah Robertson and Dave Elmendorf give Rams six All-Pro selections for second straight year.

1975 With defense allowing second fewest points in NFL history over a 14-game season (135), Rams win third straight NFC Western title by completing 12-2 season. Jack Youngblood is named NFC Defensive Player of Year and earns first team All-Pro honors along with Tom Mack and Isiah Robertson. After playoff victory over St. Louis, however, they bow to Dallas in the NFC Championship Game. The 34-8 record over the last three years is best in the NFL.

1976 Rams win NFC West title for fourth straight year with 10-3-1 record then beat Dallas, 14-12, for their first playoff victory on the road before 24-13 NFC title game loss at Minnesota. Quarterback injuries mar season and rookie Pat Haden becomes fourth different playoff QB in four years under Knox. Rams' 351 points is highest in NFC. Jack Youngblood, Isiah Robertson and Monte Jackson are named All-Pro. Merlin Olsen is invited to a league-record 14th Pro Bowl.

1977 Rams spearhead new Coliseum configuration which reduces capacity from 91,038 to 71,039. With Lawrence McCutcheon setting new club career rushing record of 5,523 yards, the Rams (10-4) roll to their fifth straight division title before 14-7 playoff loss to Minnesota in Coliseum. Isiah Robertson earns NFC Linebacker of Year award for third consecutive season. Larry Brooks and Monte Jackson receive first team All-Pro recognition. Following the campaign Knox resigns to take Buffalo Bills head coaching post.

1978 On Feb. 1, Rosenbloom hires George Allen but releases Allen after second preseason game. Ray Malavasi becomes head coach and leads club to 12-4 mark for the sixth straight division title (tying NFL record). Rams beat Minnesota, 34-10, in playoff but lose NFC title to Dallas. Pat Haden earns NFC Player of Year award. Jack Youngblood, Jim Youngblood, Dennis Harrah, Pat Thomas and Frank Corral give Rams five All-Pro players. Rams also announce move to Anaheim Stadium beginning in 1980.

1979 Carroll Rosenbloom dies April 2 and his widow, Georgia, becomes majority owner. Club moves to Rams Park in Anaheim, where offices and practice facilities are together. Despite multitude of injuries, team wins 7th straight division title to set NFL record, then beats Dallas (21-19) and Tampa Bay (9-0) in NFC Playoffs. Rams lose to Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XIV, 31-19. Defensive line is represented on All-Pro team by Larry Brooks and Jack Youngblood.

1980 With Anaheim Stadium's capacity set at 69,045, Rams sell out last six home games and finish with 11-5 record. Rams lead NFL in rushing for first time since 1957, gaining 2,799 yards. Rams set 15 club records and tie three others. Nolan Cromwell named consensus All-NFL and receives award as NFC Defensive Player of the Year. Rams enter playoffs as wild card and lose to Dallas, 34-13.

1981 Rams finish 6-10, missing playoffs for the first time since 1972. Nolan Cromwell and LeRoy Irvin named All-NFL. Irvin sets NFL record with 207 punt return yards in 37-35 win over Atlanta. Wendell Tyler rushes for 1,074 yards and ties Elroy Hirsch's club record of 17 touchdowns in a season. Rams sell out first seven regular season games at Anaheim Stadium.

1982 NFL players' strike wipes out seven games of the regular season schedule and the Rams finish last in the NFC with a 2-7 record. QB Bert Jones, acquired in draft day trade from Baltimore, misses last 5 games with a neck injury. In his place, Vince Ferragamo throws for 509 yards vs. Chicago, second highest in league history. Following the season Malavasi is dismissed.

1983 In one of the most dramatic turnaround years in NFL history, Georgia Frontiere begins by hiring former USC Coach John Robinson in February. Revamped front office engineers a dozen offseason trades. Eric Dickerson is drafted on the first round in April. Robinson installs new offense (single back) and new defense (3-4) while Frontiere signs all players on roster. Rams go 9-7 and enter playoffs as wild card team beating Dallas in Texas, 24-17, before losing to Redskins in Washington. Dickerson breaks NFL rookie rushing record (1,808 yards), sets five Ram records and is consensus All-Pro. Cromwell, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Dickerson make Pro Bowl. Robinson named NFC Coach of the Year.

1984 Rams make playoffs for second time in as many years after finishing with 10-6 mark. Rams host first ever playoff game at Anaheim Stadium before record crowd of 67,037 but lose to New York Giants in NFC wild card game. Again, Eric Dickerson is the offensive force behind the Rams' success as he rushes for 2,105 yards, breaking O.J. Simpson's NFL record of 2,003. Jack Youngblood sets Ram record by playing in his 201st consecutive game. Quarterback Jeff Kemp replaces injured Vince Ferrangamo in Week Three and leads team to nine wins. Dickerson is named NFC Player of the Year and makes Pro Bowl along with Henry Ellard, Kent Hill and Doug Smith. Dickerson is joined by Bill Bain, Jim Collins and Henry Ellard on first team All-Pro.

1985 Rams season falls just one game short when they lose to Chicago Bears in the NFC Championship Game. The defense and special teams play prominent roles in 11-5 regular season. Rams defense stifles Minnesota on one-inch line to preserve 13-10 victory as time runs out in Week Five. Ron Brown electrifies Anaheim Stadium crowd by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns against Green Bay to tie NFL record in Week Twelve. Eric Dickerson misses first two games but returns to rush for 1,234 yards. he sets an NFL playoff record by rushing for 248 yards against Dallas in first ever playoff win (20-0) at Anaheim Stadium. Nine Rams make NFC Pro Bowl team: Ron Brown, Jim Collins, Gary Green, Dale Hatcher, LeRoy Irvin, and four offensive linemen, Dennis Harrah, Kent Hill, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Collins, Irvin, Hatcher, Brown, Vince Newsome and Henry Ellard receive first team All-Pro recognition.

G Tom Mack

1986 Rams make playoffs for fourth consecutive year after posting a 10-6 regular season record. Rams acquire rookie Quarterback Jim Everett from Houston in major trade with Oilers. Everett throws three touchdown passes in debut against Patriots and starts last five games including playoff loss to Washington. Eric Dickerson rushes for over 1,000 yards for fourth consecutive season (1,821) and surpasses former Ram running back Lawrence McCutcheon as the teams all-time leading rusher with 6,968 yards in only four seasons. Defense plays important role in Rams' success, finishing fifth in total defense in the NFL, yielding 304 yards per game. Seven Rams selected to Pro Bowl - Dickerson, Carl Ekern, Jerry Gray, Dennis Harrah, LeRoy Irvin, Jackie Slater and Doug Smith. Harrah, Dickerson Slater and Irvin also garner first team All-Pro honors.

1987 Rams fail to make the playoffs for the first time in last five seasons while finishing with a 6-9 record. NFL players' strike shortens season by one game while three games are played with non-union players. Rams acquire six draft choices (three No. One's and three No. Two's over the next two years) from the Colts in blockbuster trade for Running Back Eric Dickerson. Charles White takes over for Dickerson and wins NFL rushing title by gaining 1,374 yards and is named to his first Pro Bowl as well as unanimous All-Pro.Ron Brown, Jackie Slater and Tom Newberry join White on All-Pro first team.

Hall of Famer Deacon Jones' glare in the late 1960's.

1988 Rams qualify for the playoffs for the fifth time in six seasons under John Robinson, who becomes the winningest coach in club history with 58 wins. Rams lose NFC Wild Card Game to Minnesota after finishing with a 10-6 record. Team features wide open offense as Jim Everett sets four Ram passing records and ties a fifth while wide receiver Henry Ellard sets a Ram record for most catches in a season with 86. Defensively, the Rams tie a club record with 56 quarterback sacks which leads the league. Rams have five of the top 47 choices in draft and select RB Gaston Green and WR Aaron Cox on the first round. Five players are selected to the Pro Bowl - Jackie Slater, Henry Ellard, Tom Newberry, Doug Smith and Jerry Gray. Five more make All-Pro - Ellard, Slater, Newberry, LeRoy Irvin and Irv Pankey.

1989 Rams finish regular season with an 11-5 record and qualify for playoffs as a wild card entry. Team posts road playoff victories over Philadelphia and N.Y. Giants before losing to San Francisco in NFC Championship game. Rams' 13 wins are the most since 1978. Jim Everett becomes the first player in club history to pass for over 4,000 yards (4,310), while receivers Henry Ellard (1,382 yds.) and Flipper Anderson (1,146) are the first two receivers to gain over 1,000 yards in the same season. Anderson also sets NFL record with 336 receiving yards on 15 catches vs. New Orleans. Safety Vince Newsome tops defense with 89 tackles while Linebacker Kevin Greene registers 16.5 quarterback sacks. Jerry Gray, Kevin Greene, Tom Newberry, Jackie Slater, Doug Smith and Ellard make the Pro Bowl. Gray returns interception for a touchdown and is named the game's Most Valuable Player. Slater is named NFC Offenisve Lineman of Year for third straight season and fifth time in career. Slater, Newberry, Greene, Gary and Mike Lansford are All-Pro first team picks.

1990 Henry Ellard, (most receptions with 412 and yards with 7,037), and Jackie Slater (most games played with 209) both set Ram records as the team posts a disappointing 5-11 record. Ellard and Willie "Flipper" Anderson also become first receivers in Rams history to have consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons, a feat only two other NFL teams have accomplished. Rams spoil 49ers attempt to break NFL record of consecutive wins by beating San Francisco at Candlestick, 28-17.Jackie Slater and Jim Everett represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

1991 Rams suffer through one of the most disappointing seasons in their history by finishing with a 3-13 record. The franchise loses a record 10 games in a row to finish the season. John Robinson resigns as head coach prior to the club's last regular season game. Tackle Jackie Slater becomes the first player in Ram history to play 16 seasons. Rams fail to have a player named to the NFL Pro Bowl for the first time since the game's inception in 1950. Versatile Robert Delpino earns first team All-Pro honors as receiver-back.

1992 Rams hire former head coach Chuck Knox (1973-77) as head coach, replacing John Robinson. Rams select DT Sean Gilbert, from the University of Pittsburgh with third choice in the first round. By doubling its victory total from the previous year Los Angeles finishes 6-10. Rams deal eventual Super Bowl XXVII champions only loss at home 27-23 and set club record by overcoming a 24-point deficit in 31-27 win at Tampa Bay. Kevin Greene is named to All-Pro first team.

1993 NFL and Player Association representatives agree on a new free agency system for players with 5 years or more experience. Rams name Jim Everett and Sean Gilbert as transition players, giving Los Angeles the first right of refusal once their contracts expire. Rams select RB Jerome Bettis, from the University of Notre Dame with the 10th pick in the first round and he earns rookie of the year` honors after rushing for 1,429 yards (2nd in NFL) including 212 yards at New Orelans in 23-20 Rams' victory. Bettis and DT Sean Gilbert, who led team with 10.5 quarterback sacks, become first Rams since 1990 to appear in Pro Bowl. Bettis becomes only second player in team history to win Rookie of the Year honors. Both Bettis and Gilbert receive first team All-Pro accolades.

1994 Rams endure an active off-season of change in which club signs several free agents, including QB Chris Miller of Atlanta and DT Jimmie Jones of Dallas, and trades QB Jim Everett. Rams trade down in draft and have 10 choices in first six rounds and seven in first three. Auburn T Wayne Gandy is club's first choiceeld on May 3, Rams exercise a clause in their lease with city of Anaheim that allows the club to terminate lease within 15 months. Rams become first team ever to shutout Joe Montana with 16-0 win over Kansas City at Arrowhead Stadium. Team suffers its fifth consecutive losing season after dropping final seven games. Jerome Bettis finishes with 1,025 yards and earns second Pro Bowl invitation, becoming first Ram player to do so since Jackie Slater in 1990. Chuck Knox is relieved of his coaching duties at end of season.

1995 Frontiere moves franchise to St. Louis after 49 years in Southern California. NFL owners approve team's relocation effort with 23-6-1 vote on April 12, bringing NFL football back to St. Louis after eight year absence. League owners originally block proposed move with 3-21-6 vote on March 15. Rams hire Steve Ortmayer as Vice President for Football Operations and former Oregon coach Rich Brooks as 19th head coach in team history. After signing several free agents, including LB Carlos Jenkins, CB Anthony Parker and QB Mark Rypien, Rams make Florida DE Kevin Carter their number one draft choice. Rams greet St. Louis with 4-0 record to start season. Isaac Bruce produces record-breaking year with 119 receptions for 1,781 yards, while D'Marco Farr finishes eighth in NFL with 11.5 sacks. Bruce is named recipient of Daniel F. Reeves award as team's most valuable player and receives All-Pro recognition from Sports Illustrated. Jackie Slater becomes first player in NFL history to play 20 seasons with one team by starting against Carolina. Chris Miller announces retirement during offseason due to concussion problems.

1996 Rams complete busy offseason by signing several free agents, including DE Leslie O'Neal and LB Robert Jones. Rams trade DE Sean Gilbert to Washington for sixth overall pick in 1996 draft and later swap RB Jerome Bettis to Pittsburgh for second round selection in 1996 and fourth round pick in 1997. Rams receive high praise for producing one of league's top drafts. They upgrade offense by selecting Nebraska RB Lawrence Phillips and LSU WR Eddie Kennison in first round and Michigan State QB Tony Banks in second. Team moves into state-of-the-art administration and practice facility in June.

RAMS OVERTIME GAMES

The Rams have played in 12 overtime games, 11 in the regular season and one in the playoffs, since the NFL adopted the extra period in 1974. They are 6-5-1 overall and one of only six NFC teams with a winning record in overtime games. The Rams currently have the longest consecutive game streak in the NFL without an overtime at 92. They last played an overtime game against Cincinnati on 10/7/90.

TRAINING CAMP

The St. Louis Rams will hold their 1996 Training Camp at Western Illinois University in Macomb. Rams Advance Camp begins July 14, when rookies, quarterbacks and selected veterans report. The remainder of the team will arrive July 18. The Rams will break camp on Friday, August 16.

The tenative daily schedule includes morning and afternoon practices, which are open to the public. The Rams are scheduled to travel to Platteville, Wis., to face the Chicago Bears in a series of srimmages from July 25-27.

Western Illinois represents the ninth training camp location for the Rams since 1946. The Rams held summer training camp at Maryville University in West St. Louis County and attracted more than 27,000 fans last year.

TRAINING CAMP FACTS

LOCATION: Western Illinois University, Macomb, IL.
Western is located approximately 150 miles north of St. Louis and can be reached by way of Alton, IL., proceeding on Highway 67 through Jacksonville and Beardstown. Proceed north on Highway 136 and turn left at University Drive, which runs into campus.

DATES: Rookies, quarterbacks and selected veterans report on July 14. Full squad workouts begin July 18 and run through August 16.

MACOMB: Macomb is a community of about 20,000 persons in the hub of the West Central Illinois heartland. The university has a student population of 12,500, including 2,000 out-of-state and 550 foreign students.

PRACTICES: Rams practice sessions are open to the public and are free of charge.

INFORMATION: Further information about Rams training camp can be obtained by calling the Rams in St. Louis at 314-877-3700.

TRANS WORLD DOME

TRANS WORLD DOME DIMENSIONS

Opened:
November 12, 1995 (Rams vs. Carolina)

Seating Capacity:
66,000. The first 14 rows are retractable seats to provide space for meetings and trade shows.

Turf:
Magic Carpet Astro Turf. There are 73,000 square feet of turf, weighing 100,000 pounds. Hydraulic winches pull the Astro Turf carpet out of a pit beneath the floor onto the Dome floor. An air blower system blows air between the floor and carpet to reduce the friction of the turf being dragged across the Dome floor. After use, the turf is rolled up by the drive roll machinery in the pit. Football-ready setup time takes approximately three hours using the Magic Carpet system.

Cost:
$280 million

Size:
205 feet high, 14 acres wide. The 12.5 acre roof structure weighs 10.4 million pounds. There were 262 miles or 64,000 yards of concrete used.

Stadium Club:
Largest in the country. The Club Level has 42,500 square feet of bars, food service and hospitality space. No other stadium dedicates an entire concourse to its stadium club.

Scoreboard System:
Sony JumboTron, White Way Matrix Scoreboard. The two Sony JumboTrons stand 20 feet high and 26 feet wide and weigh 10,800 pounds. The system consumes a maximum of 62,330 watts of electricity.

Restrooms:
There are 968 public toilets, including 478 for women, 481 for men, and nine family restrooms.

1996 ST. LOUIS RAMS ON RADIO

For the second straight season, KSD-AM (550) and FM (93.7) stereo enters as the flagship radio station for Rams National Football League broadcasts. KSD will originate all 20 pre-season and regular season games broadcast across "The St. Louis Rams Radio Network," consisting of over 27 stations in six states.

In his second season, the play by play voice for the Rams is Gary Bender, while former Rams wide receiver Jack Snow adds his color commentary from a player's perspective for the fifth season. Contributing with sideline reporting during the game in his first season is Steve Schlanger.

Live post-game locker room interviews with players and coaches follow each game. KSD will have a two hour pre-game and post-game report for each game.

KSD's coverage continues during the week with special programming including: the Rams Daily Reports, a Thursday night Rams Show and the weekly Rich Brook's call-in show on Tuesday evenings.
